MANNY FARBER: EVERYDAY OBJECTS

NOVEMBER 17 – DECEMBER 29, 2018

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 17TH: OPENING RECEPTION FROM 11-1PM

Quint Gallery is pleased to announce the opening of an exhibition of paintings and works on paper by Manny Farber. This show coincides with the exhibition, One Day at a Time: Manny Farber and Termite Art, currently on view at MOCA LA. The exhibition at Quint Gallery will be from November 17th through December 29th, 2018. There will be an opening reception open to the public Saturday, November 17th from 11am to 1pm.

Born in Douglas, Arizona in 1917, Farber began painting in the 1930s. Before joining the faculty at the University of California, San Diego Visual Arts Department in 1969, he was a film critic in New York, writing for the New Republic, the Nation and ARTFORUM. Known in the 1950s and 1960s for his shaped canvas abstractions, Farber began painting still-lives in 1974. He retired from teaching in 1987 and continued painting at this studio in Leucadia, California until his death in 2008. Since 1982, Farber has had solo exhibitions at The Museum of Contemporary Art, Los Angeles; Gagosian Gallery, Los Angeles; The Museum of Contemporary Art San Diego; The Carnegie Museum of Art, Pittsburg; PS1, New York and The Rose Art Museum, Brandeis University, Waltham, MA.
