BOOK / HOUSE

November 19 – December 31, 2016

Morning Stop: Saturday, November 19, from 10am – 1pm

Quint Projects is pleased to announce a special exhibition titled BOOK / HOUSE. On display will be Aaron Stephan's Building Houses / Hiding Under Rocks, an interactive sculpture made of library books along with a selection of artist books. The exhibition will open on Saturday, November 19 with a Morning Stop from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. All events are free and open to the public.

Building Houses / Hiding Under Rocks is a 7 x 7 x 7 foot cube composed entirely of 50,000 books sourced from library's around Stephan's hometown of Portland, Maine. Originally shown at Quint Gallery in 2008, this piece was also on display at The New Children's Museum in 2008 and the California Center for the Arts, Escondido in 2009.

Quint Projects will host two events during this exhibition including BOOK / SHOP - which will take place every Saturday and will feature Quint Gallery publications including Kelsey Brookes: Psychedelic Space, Ryan McGinness: Women – New Representations and Robert Irwin: Projects and Exhibitions 2012-2013. There will also be an eclectic mix of artist books including Jean Lowe, Ed Ruscha and Jeff Koons.

Please join us on Saturday, December 10th from 10am - 1pm for BOOK / SIGN with Kim MacConnel - a book signing and release party in honor of MacConnel's new publication. Ideal Boy is a limited-edition book collaboration by poet Ed Friedman and visual artist Kim MacConnel. Its 14 poems and 18 illustrations evoke a "speculative pan-cultural boyhood & manhood replete with customs, rites, prohibitions, encouragements, ambitions, fantasies, and assessments." Visual artist Ann Agee has designed a three-color dust jacket for the book, which has been screen-printed in four versions. The titling on each version is in a different language: Tamil, Urdu, Khmer, Tajik. Ideal Boy has been produced in an edition of 200. Each copy has been numbered and signed by the author, illustrator, and cover artist.
